Certified Copies of Marriage and Divorce Records

What is the Office of Vital Records?

The Office of Vital Records (OVR) is the State Registrar for the State of California. We maintain permanent records of public marriages that have occurred in California since July 1905.

Does your office issue certified copies of public marriage certificates?

The Office of Vital Records maintains a permanent record of California public marriages.

We can provide certified copies of certificates for public marriages that occurred in the years:

- 1949 through 1986
- 1998 through 1999

We cannot provide certified copies of certificates for public marriages that occurred in the years:

- 1905 through 1948 *
- 1987 through 1997 *
- 2000-Present *

* While we do preserve these records in our office, due to the time-consuming process of searching marriage records, we are not able to provide certified copies of certificates for these years. You will need to contact the County Recorder in the county where the license was issued. (A list of County Recorders is attached.)

Does your office issue certified copies of confidential marriage certificates?

Our office does not maintain records of confidential marriages – you must request these certificates through the County Clerk in the county where the license was issued. (A list of County Clerks is attached.)

What is a “Confidential” Marriage?

A confidential marriage is a marriage that can be performed only for two parties who have been living together as spouses. Only the two parties involved can get a copy of the confidential marriage certificate (confidential marriage records are not open to public inspection except with a court order).

Does your office issue certified copies of divorce certificates?

Our office maintains divorce records only for the years 1962 through June 1984. These records consist only of the face sheet of the divorce action – not the actual divorce decree. We are only able to provide you with a Certificate of Record, which includes the names of the parties, filing date, county, and case number of the divorce. Copies of the actual divorce decree can only be obtained from the Superior Court in the county where the divorce took place.

You can access the following website for Superior Court contact information:
www.courtinfo.ca.gov/courts.

What is the fee for a certified copy of a marriage or divorce certificate?

- Marriage Certificate: $14
Divorce Certificate: $13
- Fees are nonrefundable (per state law).
- Fees are established in the California Health and Safety Code, which authorizes our office to keep the fee when it searches for a record even if no certified copy is issued. For this reason, you should provide as much information as possible so we can locate the correct record.
- If we cannot locate the record based on the information you provide, we will keep the fee (for our searching efforts) and issue a Certificate of No Public Record.
- Our office is separate from the local registrars and county recorders, so fees previously paid to these offices cannot be transferred to our office.

Does OVR issue free certified copies?

- We only issue free copies to:

Local child support agencies and district attorneys for child support enforcement (Government Code Section 6103.9 [a]),

Veterans (or their representatives) for the purpose of establishing military benefits (Government Code Section 6107 [a]) (if the request comes through the Veterans Administration Office),

Victims of crime (or their representatives) in connection with a claim under the Victims of Crime Act (Government Code Sections 13952-13954).
- Fees should be paid by check or money order payable to Office of Vital Records. International money orders for out-of country requests should be payable in U.S. dollars.

What is the fastest way to get a certified copy of a marriage or divorce certificate?

Due to the increased and urgent need for certified copies of birth certificates as proof of identity, OVR is experiencing lengthy delays in the processing time for marriage records. Since this processing time can easily exceed six months, you should submit your request for a marriage record to the County Recorder's Office in the county where the marriage license was issued.

Marriage: The County Recorder in the county where the license was issued. (A list of County Recorders is attached.)

Divorce: The Superior Court in the county where the divorce was filed. The following website provides Superior Court contact information:
www.courtinfo.ca.gov/courts.

What if I do not know the county where the event took place?

Because of our lengthy processing time, we encourage you to contact the above offices. If you have exhausted all efforts and cannot identify the appropriate county, you can return your request to our office – but only for the event years identified on the first page of this pamphlet.

To ensure that we do not return your request to you for referral to the county office, it is important that you include a note that you are not able to identify the specific county where the event took place.

What do I submit to get a certified copy of a marriage or divorce certificate?

- Applications are included in this pamphlet (you can photocopy additional copies if needed, or download it from our website).
- Complete the appropriate applications for the type of record you are requesting (marriage or divorce) – be sure to complete all appropriate items on the application.
- Complete a separate application for each record requested.
- Mail the following items to our office using the address on the front of this pamphlet:
  - Completed application.
  - Appropriate fee.
  - Notarized Sworn Statement (if appropriate) – see next section.

Note: A Sworn Statement is not required for a divorce request.

- If any of the required items are not included, your request will be returned to you for correction.

Do I need to provide a sworn statement?

Effective January 1, 2010, a new law changes the way we issue marriage certificates. There are now two types of certified copies that we provide:

1. Certified Copy (only authorized individuals can get this type).

If you are requesting a Certified Copy, you MUST provide a notarized Sworn Statement (see page 3 of the application) declaring under penalty of perjury that you are authorized by law to receive the Certified Copy (see application for list of authorized individuals).

If you are requesting a Certified Copy and a notarized Sworn Statement is not included, we will not be able to accept your request for processing.

A Certified Copy can be used to establish the identity of the person named on the certificate.

Note: Only one Sworn Statement is required for multiple records that are requested at the same time – but the Sworn Statement must include the name of each person whose record is being requested and your relationship to that person.

2. Certified Informational Copy (anyone can get this type).

If you are requesting a Certified Informational Copy, you DO NOT need to provide a Sworn Statement.

A Certified Informational Copy cannot be used to establish identity.

Persons who are not eligible to receive a Certified Copy can receive a Certified Informational Copy.

Both of these documents are certified copies of the original document on file with our office – they are exactly the same and contain exactly the same information. Our application (attached) contains more detailed information about these two types of certificates.

How will I know if my request has been accepted?

Once your request has been received and evaluated, we will send you either:

- A postcard letting you know your request has been accepted, and reminding you of our processing time.
- If your request is not accepted (e.g., due to insufficient fee, insufficient information, etc.), we will return your request to you with a letter explaining what needs to be corrected.

Please allow about 6 weeks to receive these documents.

What if I still have questions?

If you have read this pamphlet thoroughly and still have questions that were not answered in this pamphlet, please call our Customer Service Unit at (916) 445-2684 (Monday through Friday).

PLEASE READ THE INSTRUCTIONS ON PAGE 2 BEFORE COMPLETING THIS APPLICATION

INFORMATION:

Public marriage records have been maintained in the California Department of Public Health Vital Records (CDPH-VR) since July 1, 1905.

- 1905 through 1948, 1987 through 1997, and 2000 to Present: While we do preserve these records in our office, due to the time-consuming process of searching marriage records, we are not able to provide certified copies of certificates for these years. You will need to contact the County Recorder in the county where the license was issued.
- 1949 through 1986, and 1998 through 1999: Due to the increased and urgent need for certified copies of birth certificates as proof of identity, CDPH-VR is experiencing lengthy delays in the processing time for marriage records. Since this processing time can easily exceed six months, you should submit your request for a marriage record to the County Recorder's Office in the county where the marriage license was issued.
- Confidential Marriage Records: We do not maintain confidential marriage records. Contact the County Clerk's Office in the county where the marriage license was issued.
- Divorce Records: Maintained only for the years 1962 through June 1984. For these years, we are only able to provide you with a Certificate of Record, which identifies the names of the parties, filing date, county, and case number of the divorce. Copies of the actual divorce decree can only be obtained from the Superior Court in the county where the divorce took place. Our processing time for divorce records can be quite lengthy and may exceed six months.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Use a separate application for each different record that you are requesting. Include $14 for each marriage and $13 for each divorce record request. If we cannot locate the record based on the information you provide, state law requires that we keep the fee (for our searching efforts), but we will provide you with a "Certificate of No Public Record."
2. Provide as much information as possible to help us locate the specific record you are requesting. Complete First and Second Person Information for marriage requests, and/or divorce requests. If the information you provide is incomplete or inaccurate, we may not be able to locate the record.
3. Identify the number of copies you want. Include a check or money order made payable to CDPH Vital Records (for out-of-country requests, use an international money order payable in U.S. dollars). PLEASE SUBMIT CHECK OR MONEY ORDER - DO NOT SEND CASH (CDPH CANNOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR FEES PAID IN CASH THAT ARE LOST, MISDIRECTED, OR UNDELIVERED). Mail completed application with the fee(s) to the CDPH Vital Records at the address below.
4. SWORN STATEMENT:
  - The authorized individual requesting the certified copy must sign the attached Sworn Statement, declaring under penalty of perjury that they are eligible to receive the certified copy of the marriage record, and identify their relationship to the registrant(s) – their relationship must be one of those identified on Page 1.
  - If the application is being submitted by mail, the Sworn Statement must be notarized by a Notary Public. (To find a Notary Public, see your local yellow pages or call your banking institution.) Law enforcement and local and state governmental agencies are exempt from the notary requirement.
  - You do not have to provide a Sworn Statement if you request a "Certified Informational Copy" of the marriage record.
5. Mailing Completed Certificates: completed certificates are mailed using the U.S. Postal Service.
